

Mini Splits 101:

The Parts of a Mini Split System

Whether you're already using a heat pump mini split for heating and cooling, or you are sizing them up to see if they are the right fit for your home's needs, you're going to want to know about the anatomy of a heat pump.

Indoor Air Handler

Distributes conditioned air directly into your living space, providing efficient heating or cooling.

Thermostat or Remote

Monitors and controls the temperature setting.

Compressor and Heat Exchanger

The outdoor compressor and heat exchanger work together to transfer heat between the indoor and outdoor air.

Line Set

Consists of insulated refrigerant lines that connect the indoor and outdoor units.

Get Heating and Cooling in One

Adding a heat pump or ductless mini split to your home improves both the comfort and efficiency of your home through all four of Oklahoma's seasons. Call Pippin Brothers today to get answers to all of your heat pump questions

Pippin Brothers is a complete heating and cooling contractor serving the greater Lawton, Oklahoma area.